

Placename application

The Geographical Names Act 1966, empowers the Geographical Names Board of New South Wales (GNB) to assign names to places, investigate and determine the form, spelling, meaning, pronunciation, origin and history of any geographical name and to apply names with regard to position, extent or otherwise.

Place means any geographical or topographical feature or any district, division, locality, region, city, town, village, settlement, railway station or school or any other place within New South Wales but does not include any road, any local government area, urban area, county district or electoral district.

Individuals, private organisations and government authorities should submit any proposal to assign a geographical name on the attached form.

Prior to application, please refer to the Guidelines for the determination of placenames available on the GNB www.gnb.nsw.gov.au

A checklist has been provided to assist in completing the application.

The Naming Proposal form

Please supply as much information as possible to ensure accurate identification of the feature including a map

Marked maps should be at an appropriate scale to show all of the feature and the specific pattern of delineation.

The GNB welcomes suggestions for new place names. However, proposals will need to have the support of the local council.

If the proposed name is associated with the flora, fauna, topography, climate, history of the area or another nearby feature, full details should be provided.

Email or post the completed naming proposal form, completed checklist and maps to:
