Have your say on a place name in City of Sydney LGA

Tuesday 25 June 2024

The Geographical Names Board (GNB) is seeking community feedback on a proposal by City of Sydney Council to name a reserve in the locality of Rosebery as Butterscotch Park.

The multipurpose park is bounded by Crewe Place, Confectioners Way and Rosebery Avenue.

The park is on the site of the former Sweetacres factory of James Stedman Henderson Ltd, which opened in 1918 on Rothschild Avenue.

A range of Butterscotch confectionaries were made at the Sweetacres Factory.

GNB is seeking feedback to gauge community sentiment for the proposed name. Suggestions for alternative names is not being sought at this time.

Details of the proposal can be viewed, and submissions lodged on the Geographical Names Board website.

Alternatively, written submissions may be mailed to the Secretary, Geographical Names Board, 346 Panorama Ave, Bathurst, NSW 2795.

The closing date for submissions is 21 July 2024.

Quotes to be attributed to NSW Surveyor-General Narelle Underwood:

“Names are not just labels; they tell the stories of their community, and it is important that they reflect the character and history of the local area.”

“Community consultation on the proposed names is an important step to make sure everyone has an opportunity to provide their feedback and ensures that each voice has a chance to contribute.”
